MACARTHUR COAL LIMITED

5 November 2008

Macarthur Coal is on the move

ASX Release

As of Monday 10 November 2008 Macarthur Coal will operate from new offices at Level 5, 100 Melbourne Street, South Brisbane, QLD 4101.

About Macarthur Coal

Macarthur Coal is an Australian coal company developing a new generation of coal assets in Queensland's Bowen Basin. The company currently holds 73.3% of the Coppabella and Moorvale mines.

The company's operations produce approximately 35% of the seaborne global demand for low volatile PCI coal, which is a high-growth coal market.

The company is focussed on organic growth through developing new mines from grass roots level and identifying and pursuing high growth market segments.
