

Terms and Conditions of Participation in the BRW Corporate Reputation Audit - 2005

1. The BRW Corporate Reputation Audit is conducted by Corporate Reputation Audit Ltd (ACN 113 223 617) (“CRA Ltd”) of Level 6 31 Queen Street Melbourne, 3000, Victoria, Australia.
2. A participating company, by distributing to its selected Stakeholders the unique Corporate Key numbers to be issued to it by CRA Ltd will be taken to have accepted these terms and conditions and become bound to abide by them.
3. The participating company:
  - a. agrees not to send to CRA Ltd any confidential information which it does not wish placed into the public domain;
  - b. has the right at any time to withdraw from the Audit and in the event of withdraw prior to the final preparation for publication of results, no information shall be published about the partial or non participation of the company;
  - c. acknowledges that it has read the material included in the Company Delegate Information Pack sent to it by CRA Ltd and understands its obligations as a participating company as set out in the documents included in the information pack; and
  - d. if it is ultimately listed in the category of ‘exemplar’ companies whose results are to be published in BRW, agrees to allow CRA Ltd and BRW to use its name and corporate logo in the publication of the survey results and associated articles.
4. CRA Ltd and its employees and consultants:
  - a. having access to the information made available by a participating company agrees to conduct itself in accordance with the terms set out in the documents included in the Information Pack;
  - b. agree to conduct the survey in a professional manner in accordance with the procedures set out in the Information Pack.